

Ty Williams

2022 Montgomery County Recovery and Resiliency Award Recipient

Ty Williams is the Crisis Community Liaison and Trainer at Access Services. He is also an active member of the Montgomery County Suicide Prevention Taskforce. Ty works closely with Montgomery County school districts and colleges to offer suicide prevention trainings (QPR) and mental health presentations (Hope4Tomorrow). Ty coordinates all of these presentations and also fosters and maintains very important relationships with school partners. In addition to offering these presentations to MontCo school districts and colleges, Ty also does an immense amount of community outreach- attending resource fairs and events, sharing suicide prevention and mental health resources available to families and residents of Montgomery County. Ty has broadened folks understanding of what people go through and has inspired others interest in suicide prevention from a social justice lens. He is a wonderful advocate and partner within the schools and the Suicide Prevention Taskforce. For this reason, he is being recognized for all his important and incredible work!
